1. Put the words and phrases below into the correct spaces in the text.

Sorry Granddad

I was about six or seven (a). I was at home with my granddad. He looked after me during the week (b). He was dozing in an armchair (c). When I asked him what time Mum was coming home, he didn't answer. I asked him again but there was still no reply. You can probably guess – he was asleep. (d), while I was playing, I found some old scissors in my doll's house. I don't know what gave me the idea, but I just couldn't resist it. I picked up the scissors and tiptoed across the room (e). He was snoring loudly. Really quickly I cut off the ends of his moustache. (f) I just stood there and stared at him – he looked completely different. I felt so guilty I burst into tears. (g) he woke up and wondered what was happening. When I told him, he felt his moustache, leapt out of his chair and looked in the mirror. Then, (h), he just laughed.
